

How to get to Madrid from Madrid Barajas International Airport.

After passing through passport control and collecting your baggage, exit the Terminal where you will see signs for "Metro", bus and taxis.

Transfer:

If you have requested the transfer service from Madrid Airport to your accommodation, look for a person with a sign with your name when exiting the terminal. Wait 30 minutes after expected time of arrival in case you don't find the person who will pick you up.
Then call emergency number 616 415 559.

You can reach Madrid by:

Metro/subway. Follow the signs "Metro" and take it to the closest station to your accommodation. It will cost you less than 3,00 €. If you arrive to Terminal 1 or 2, just follow the signs "Metro" to the station named "Aeropuerto". If you arrive to Terminal 4, follow the signs to "Aeropuerto T4".

All addresses (families, student rooms, apartments and hotels) will have the closest metro station included. It can be tiring if you have heavy luggage.

Take the "Metro" to Nuevos Ministerios station and then a taxi to your accommodation. It should not cost more than 15,00 € in any case.

b) Bus. Autobus Aeropuerto-Avenida de América that leaves every 15/20 minutes and costs less than 2,00 €. Bus 200 is departing from Terminals 1 and 2. Bus 204 is departing from Terminal 4. This bus takes you to the Avenida de América, in the center of Madrid. From there you can take a taxi to your place of accommodation. It shouldn't cost more than 15,00 € in any case.

c) Taxi. You can take a taxi from the airport. Pay no attention to the "taxi-drivers" who approach you inside the terminal, and follow the signs "taxi". All Madrid's taxis are white with a red stripe and a licence number on the door. Under normal traffic conditions, a taxi should not cost you more than 25,00 in any case, including airport supplement 5,50 €. From Terminal 4 add 3 or 4 € more. You can demand an official receipt. Prices are printed in the window of the taxi. Should you have any problem, take the licence number of the taxi and inform Estudio Sampere office the following day.

At 9:00 am on the first day of the course, come
